Guarded by heavily armed soldiers, two Army ambulances, presumably carrying the bodies of six electrocuted Nazi saboteurs, are shown leaving District of Columbia jail where the men were executed.

Full Instructions for Citizens During
Blackout PreparedWill Be Published Tuesday
Evening in Dixon
Evening Telegraph

Be calm—that is the advice given today by Dixon's civilian defense council in regard to the blackout, scheduled for a half hour beginning at 10 o'clock Wednesday night. During the 30-minute period, sections of four midwest states will be blacked out, in accordance with instructions issued by the United States Army.

The most important feature of the blackout will be the elimination of all lights and the protection of civilian and city property and personal possessions. Council officials urge everyone to stay at home and remain calm, in order to facilitate successful results.

Motorists are requested to park their cars immediately upon hearing the warning whistles, turn off all lights, and remain in their automobiles. Pedestrians should leave the streets as soon as possible after the preliminary warning, but they are urged to walk slowly and not gather in groups.

Flashlights Barred
Particular stress has been placed upon the request not to use matches, smoke cigarettes, gas or pipes outside of a building during the half-hour period. Flashlights are strictly prohibited, unless their use conforms with CD (Office of Civilian Defense) regulations and can then be used only by volunteers in civilian defense service.

Every householder and business man is asked to examine his property thoroughly after making certain that all lights have been extinguished, in order that a forgotten bulb is not left burning. Over 10 airplanes will be on observation during the blackout, and actually, Dixon desires a high score in the blackout competition. According to plans announced today, the 12 areas in Dixon, which include the same sections as the 12 voting precincts, are to be placed in competition to determine which area of the city commits the fewest violations. Violations will include failures to extinguish lights, automobiles with lights burning, or instances of smoking, the striking of matches, or use of flashlights.

The Dixon Evening Telegraph will publish a full page of instructions to householders, motorists, pedestrians, business and professional men, and the general public tomorrow's edition of this page.

Midwesterners Urged to Get Their Coal Now

Washington, Aug. 10.—(AP)—Midwest Fuel Coordinator Ickes today urged users of midwestern coal to increase shipments immediately wherever possible to protect themselves against growing uncertainties as to the ability of midwestern mines and carriers to meet peak fuel demands this fall of winter.

While shipments of midwestern coal are abnormally heavy due to conditions, Ickes said additional coal still is available for immediate delivery in many areas. A survey revealed, Ickes said, pressing necessity for consumers to act without delay in ordering every ton of coal possible for protective storage.

The War Today!

By DEWITT MacKENZIE
Wide World War Analyst
(Telegraph Special Service)

The week-end has developed three major crises which, although in widely separated theaters, seem to be closely related—(1) the American offensive against the Japanese in the Solomon and Aleutian islands, (2) the further German gain in the Maikop oil zone of the northern Caucasus, and (3) the inauguration of the Indian Nationalist revolt against British rule.

While we have no official interpretation of the strategic purposes of the new drive against the Japs, I think we are warranted in assuming that it probably is intended to serve in part as a "second front" to protect Russia from the Japanese during the height of the Caucasian pressure. There is danger that the Japanese may take advantage of the Soviet difficulties to attack Siberia, and our offensive may be intended to create a sufficient diversion, especially in the air, to discourage them from sticking a knife in Russia's back.

The Indian tragedy provides further incentive for the Japanese to duplicate their Pearl Harbor treachery and strike at Russia. With India thus stricken, and the allies in danger of seeing this vast arsenal and vital strategic base rendered useless—or perhaps much worse—the hand of the United Nations against Japan will be weakened.

By the same token China loses striking power against the Japs. Since the Nipponese cut the Burma Road she has been getting most of her supplies from the outside world by air from India and over primitive trade trails through the mountains from the country.

However, while our offensive does protect Russia, either by design or by circumstance, it undoubtedly is calculated to do more than create a diversion to help our Soviet ally. The Solomons and the neighboring Bismarck archipelago are in the blackout competition.

According to plans announced today, the 12 areas in Dixon, which include the same sections as the 12 voting precincts, are to be placed in competition to determine which area of the city commits the fewest violations. Violations will include failures to extinguish lights, automobiles with lights burning, or instances of smoking, the striking of matches, or use of flashlights.

Hay Fever Season Opens With Snort;
Something in Air for Five Million

Chicago, Aug. 10.—(AP)—A sneeze-sowing army of ragweed pollen has launched its annual infiltration offensive at America's 5,000,000 allergic noses.

The nasal blitz, says Oren C. Durham, prominent aerobiologist, will gain momentum the remainder of August and then gradually diminish until it fizzles out in October, "causing considerable impairment in war training and production efficiency during the period."

Durham said severe hay fever sufferers would have to take time out from their jobs in war plants and that the ranks of victims would be augmented by former office workers now in Army camps.

"Men who had very mild cases while working in cooped up offices may find it a very different story when they are exposed to the pollen in outdoors training camps," he said.

Court Martial in Store for Soldier

Somewhere in Britain, Aug. 10.—(AP)—Private Travis P. Hammond, 25, of Texas, the first American soldier of the second A. E. F. to be tried by general court martial in Britain, pleaded innocent today to a charge of assaulting a 16-year-old English girl.

If convicted he is liable to a death sentence or life imprisonment as a violator of the 92d article of war under which it is charged that Hammond "forcibly feloniously against her will did have carnal knowledge" of the girl on July 17.

Smartly dressed, the tall, dark-haired shop girl whose name was not disclosed, appeared before the court to testify against Hammond. She said she met him in a Y. M. C. A. canteen where she was a volunteer worker, accompanied him to two pubs where they drank beer and wine, then went with him and another soldier and girl to an air raid shelter.

She said that Hammond kissed her and that when the other couple left she suggested leaving, too. Instead, she testified, Hammond picked her up.

"I protested," the girl told the court. "I fought him and struck him and kicked him, but he put his hand over my mouth."

Solomon Island Battle in 4th Day

Holds Government
Justified Sparing
Lives of Two SpiesNothing Announced of Disposition of Bodies of Saboteurs

Washington, Aug. 10.—(AP)—The government was "perfectly justified" in showing leniency to two of the convicted eight German saboteurs by sending them to prison because "they helped considerably" in preparing the case against the six who were electrocuted, Attorney General Biddle said yesterday.

This strategy of sparing the lives of the men who turned tale bearer to disclose activities of their confederates in international conspiracy who came by submarine to launch a two-year sabotage campaign here, was seen as a government bid for aid from any member of other enemy bands.

Ten people have been jailed in New York and Chicago on charges of having aided the saboteurs.

There was no word on the disposition of the bodies of the six men who were executed Saturday. The Office of War Information said any information would have to come from the White House.

The British radio broadcast the news of the execution of Heinrich Harm Heinck, Richard Quirin, Edward John Kerling, Herbert Hans Haupt, Werner Thiel and Herman Otto Neubauer to the Nazi-dominated continent in several languages Saturday night.

Those spared by presidential

Comment

New York, Aug. 10.—(AP)—In its first comment on the execution of six Nazi saboteurs in the United States, the German radio said today that by its action the United States "forfeited the right of protesting against the condemnation of saboteurs in the territory occupied by the German army."

The broadcast, heard by CBS, added, without giving any source of its unsupported information, that the United States military authorities failed to prove that the six were guilty.

commutation were George John Dasch, sentenced to 30 years, and Ernest Peter Burger, to serve the remainder of his life in prison.

Beginning at noon the six walked one by one into the death chamber on the fourth floor of the old jail. There, one by one, they died in the presence of official witnesses.

Six times at intervals after noon watchers in a dismal downpour outside saw the prison light dim as the dynamos sent the fatal charges into the bodies of the condemned men.

Two Get Prison Terms

The two other saboteurs adjudged equally guilty by the military commission which tried them, escaped death by aiding the prosecution. One of them, Ernest Peter Burger, was sentenced to life in prison at hard labor. The other, George John Dasch, was sentenced to 30 years at hard labor.

Execution of the six was announced by the White House about an hour and a half after the first of the plotters was pronounced dead. The six were Herbert Hans Haupt, Heinrich Harm Heinck, Edward John Kerling, Hermann Otto Neubauer, Richard Quirin, and Werner Thiel.

The White House announcement of the execution of the saboteurs, who were given a trial to demonstrate democratic processes to totalitarian states and even were allowed to carry their fight to the United States Supreme court, was delivered in six short paragraphs. It read:

"The President completed his review of the findings and sentences of the military commission appointed by him on July 2, 1942, which tried the eight Nazi saboteurs.

Judgment Approved
"The President approved the judgment of the military commission on that all of the prisoners were guilty and that they be given the death sentence by electrocution."

"However, there was a unanimous recommendation by the commission, concurred in by the attorney general and the judge advocate general of the army, that the sentence of two of the prisoners be commuted to life imprisonment because of their assistance to the government of the United States in the apprehension and conviction of the others."

"The commutation directed by the President in the case of Burger was to confinement at hard

Clever Devices of Fifth Columnists in East Discovered

Mitchel Field, N. Y., Aug. 10.—(AP)—Ground markers emblazoned by rural fifth columnists with plows and other farm implements to guide enemy bombers to vital objectives have been discovered by Army air observers and destroyed.

Danger to large eastern airports and plane factories to which the markers pointed thus has been averted, Col. Dache M. Reeves, commanding the First Ground Air Support Unit of the First Air Force, said in making the disclosure yesterday.

"Proper action" was taken by Army intelligence officers and the Federal Bureau of Investigation, Colonel Dache said without announcing the fate of those who fashioned the ingenious markers visible only from the air.

Aerial photographs of the markers, the location of which was described only as in the eastern part of the United States, showed several clear instances of how enemy agents or sympathizers sowed into peaceful farmlands potential devices to aid destruction.

Some Clever Devices

One of the cleverest markers, according to the Air Force announcement, was an arrow pointing directly at an eastern air base and made by clearing a section of earth in the shape of a V at the head of a natural footpath.

In another photograph, a mammoth arrow created by a plow was aimed directly at a nearby airplane factory. A huge field had been furrowed except for an arrow-shaped portion of untouched land remaining dark and clearly visible against the lighter plowed part.

Still another air view showed dozens of empty grain sacks ostentatiously left carelessly in an open field but actually arranged carefully in a pattern forming an enormous figure "9," with the tail of the "9" a perfect guide pointing at a plane factory.

U. S. Army Bombers
Blast at Bengasi

Cairo, Aug. 10.—(AP)—A large formation of U. S. Army bombers attacked the supply port of Bengasi at dawn Sunday, scoring direct hits on at least one ship and doing other damage in the harbor. All returned safely.

Simultaneously RAF and South African bombers attacked enemy shipping off the North Africa coast and bombarded grounded axis warplanes at airbases in the El Daba area west of El Alamein.

There were no developments on the land front yesterday, the British said, though patrols were active during the preceding night.

State Farm Prisoner
Shot Dead by Guards

Vandalia, Ill., Aug. 10.—(AP)—Roy Smith, 41, Springfield, a prisoner at the state penal farm here, was shot and killed at noon today. Sheriff C. F. Cheshire said three guards opened fire on Smith as he attempted to break line and escape while being marched to dinner with a group of fellow prisoners. Smith had been an inmate at the farm since Saturday, the sheriff said.

CONDUCT POST MORTEM

Effingham, Ill., Aug. 10.—(AP)—A post mortem examination of the body of Mrs. Nora Levitt Trump, about 45, Effingham, was made last night after she was found dead in a hotel room. Effingham county authorities were silent about their investigation and Coroner Henry Taphorn said the findings of the examining doctors would not be disclosed until an inquest was conducted this afternoon.

Dr. C. Arthur Rossberg, resident physician at St. Agnes, said Bishop was in "remarkably good condition for a man who supposedly has starved himself for 45 days." Bishop, now receiving small amounts of glucose, is "a bit dehydrated and underweight, but perfectly alert mentally," Dr. Rossberg added.

Arthur Gamble, director of the Avalon camp for conscientious objectors near Elkhridge, Md., said so far as he knew Bishop had taken nothing but water since June 26.

Dr. Rossberg said Bishop told him he had started the fast to attract attention to what he believed was an injustice in not being given the requested time to close out his business.

Bloodshed in India

No-Violence RevoltSoldiers and Police in

Guns on Revolters

BY PRESTON GROVER

Preston Grover, a native of Farmington, Utah, again gives readers a vivid eye-witness account of world-important events in the following dispatch from India. Grover once found himself one day ahead of the British troops in Libya. With two rocks in his pocket, he quelled a native disturbance and accepted the surrender of a Libyan town to the British. Yesterday, Indian Nationalists stoned the automobile in which he rode about Bombay to see first-hand the effects of Gandhi's civil disobedience campaign. Undeterred by this, Grover again risked injury today in quest of facts to relay to American readers. The AP veteran is 42, has been a farm and ranch hand, smelter and sugar mill worker and holds an A. B. degree from the University of Utah.

Bombay, Aug. 10.—(AP)—Soldiers and police, fighting to control wide-spread rioting on the second day of Mohandas K. Gandhi's campaign to end the British rule in India, have fired upon crowds in Bombay ten times yesterday and today as strikes and disturbances spread throughout the country.

Bloodshed ushered in Gandhi's "non-violent" civil disobedience campaign yesterday when the police were forced to fire six times.

A Bombay government communique tonight said casualties on Sunday totaled eight killed and 159 wounded, but said it had no tally of today's casualties in clashes in which demonstrators stoned trains and automobiles, and burned government grain shops. Strikes closed some factories and schools.

Twenty-three were sent to the hospital with bullet wounds suffered when police fired twice into groups in the Dadar district of Bombay. In Poona police fired on a crowd, mostly of students, near Parsurambh college, and 14 were removed to a hospital. Schools and colleges there were closed. Goondas, the Hindu name for hoodlums, threw bottles through windows.

The work stoppages in some Bombay mills were in response to Mohandas K. Gandhi's "do or die" call for a "complete deadlock" by strikes and all other non-violent

Objector Ends 45-
Day Hunger Strike

Baltimore, Aug. 10.—(AP)—Thirty-six-year-old Corbett Bishop, conscientious objector who staged a 45-day hunger strike, today ended his long fast, taking nourishment at St. Agnes hospital.

Bishop had steadfastly refused food in protest over the refusal of authorities to grant him a leave of absence to close out his bookshop business in West New York, N. J. He abruptly ended his strike last night, and consented to go to the hospital.

Dr. C. Arthur Rossberg, resident physician at St. Agnes, said Bishop was in "remarkably good condition for a man who supposedly has starved himself for 45 days." Bishop, now receiving small amounts of glucose, is "a bit dehydrated and underweight, but perfectly alert mentally," Dr. Rossberg added.

Arthur Gamble, director of the Avalon camp for conscientious objectors near Elkhridge, Md., said so far as he knew Bishop had taken nothing but water since June 26.

Crowded Bus, Crippled in Collision,
Brought to Stop by Fire Department

Richmond, Calif., Aug. 10.—(AP)—A crowded bus, crippled in a collision, cruised slowly along the main highway Sunday, its gears jammed, its driver unconscious and its passengers pouring from it as it moved. One man was killed and 12 injured, none seriously.

A fire truck finally stopped the machine after it had run nearly two miles.

Policeman Howard Thulin said an automobile turned directly into the bus and crashed with such force the car was crushed and its driver injured fatally.

Lawrence Oie, bus driver, was knocked unconscious. Gears and throttle were jammed so passengers could not stop it.

Curfew

Toronto, Aug. 10.—(AP)—They're swinging it up in the Eskimo country—too hot and fast for the Mounties.

Pockets lined with cash from a bumper hunting season, Eskimos flocked down to the MacKenzie river this spring in expensive motor boats to celebrate.

Their idea of celebrating—dancing to the juke box all night and sleeping all day—put a strain on Canada's Mounted police who had to play chaperone at night and carry out their regular day-time duties.

Bishop R. J. Renison, just returned from a two-month visit to the Arctic region, said the Mounties solved their dilemma by having the government limit the hoacha sessions to twice a month with a 4:30 a. m. curfew.

Reds Dynamite Oil
Fields in Maikop;
Nazis Smash Ahead

(By The Associated Press)

Dispatches telling of tremendous explosions heard on the Caucasus front indicated today that the Russians, carrying out their scorched earth policy, were dynamiting the menaced Maikop oil fields, toward which powerful German tank forces were smashing through sagging Red army defenses.

In Britain two United States generals declared that American forces there were keyed for the offensive.

Maj. Gen. Carl Spaatz, commander of the United States Army Air Forces in Britain, said the American fliers were ready to begin attacks "within the immediate future." Maj. Gen. M. W. Clark, commander of U. S. ground forces in Britain, said "the sooner a second front could be opened, the better."

A Russian communique said the lines guarding the Volga held firm under assault northwest and southwest of Stalingrad, but acknowledged withdrawals close to the Maikop fields and the jutting spurs of the Caucasus foothills.

The Russians fell back in the Armavir region, 60 miles northeast of Maikop after a fierce engagement. The Germans were reported "striving hard to advance." Another withdrawal was made under heavy German pressure in the Kropotkin area, 60 miles north of Maikop, the Moscow communique said.

At Mountain Range

The Germans, who have claimed the capture of Maikop, Kropotkin, Armavir and Krasnodar, 55 miles northwest of Maikop, said their forces thrust 170 miles southeast of the oil field center and seized Pyatigorsk. They claimed to have reached the north slopes of the Caucasus range along a 250-mile front.

The Germans described Russian resistance on the Stalingrad front as desperate but said the Red army counterattacks there were repulsed after bitter fighting.

The Russians said the axis onslaught was beaten to a standstill in the Kietskaya area, 80 miles northwest of Stalingrad, and Coonitz has just started his 21st term at the state penal farm where he already has spent 10 years. Most of his sentences were for petty thefts involving not more than $15 worth of merchandise.

His latest conviction was for theft of a $1.25 pair of trousers.

May Be Major Battle

This information was relayed from Pearl Harbor, Hawaii, late yesterday by Admiral Chester W. Nimitz, U. S. Pacific naval commander. He gave no details as to the scope of the area under attack or the extent of the operations but all signs were that the drive might be developing into a major offensive operation.

Admiral Nimitz said the attack, on the Tulagi area in the southeast part of the Solomons, 600 miles off northeastern Australia, was being pressed by sea and air against Japanese land-based planes and garrisons and that "the operations are progressing favorably despite enemy opposition."

BULLETIN

Washington, Aug. 10.—(AP)—Admiral Ernest J. King, announced today that American forces had landed in the southeastern Solomon islands with the purpose of driving out the Japanese and permanently occupying this strategic area in the southern Pacific.

The announcement was made in a statement which said that "heavy fighting is still in progress" and that the American units engaged so far have had at least one cruiser sunk and two cruisers, two destroyers and one transport damaged.

Information as to damage inflicted on the enemy is incomplete, King reported, but includes "a large number of planes" as well as surface units "put out of action."

By C. YATES McDANIEL

Gen. MacArthur's Headquarters, Australia, Aug. 10.—(AP)—Powerful bomber formations of the allied southwest Pacific command rained sledgehammer blows on enemy bases in the New Guinea-New Britain area, it was reported today, as air and sea forces locked in battle with the Japanese for the mountainous Solomon islands and their strategic waters.

There were also unelaborated reports that allied land forces were in action.

Official reports from allied headquarters were meager and extremely cautious at the end of the fourth day of the first United Nations attempt to wrest the initiative from the Japanese in the Southwest Pacific.

But observers minimized the accuracy of Tokyo broadcast claims to have sunk or damaged a large number of United States and Australian warships and transports.

Question Jap Reports

They also emphatically questioned Tokyo radio assertions that their Solomon island defenders had incurred the loss of only seven planes and damage to two cruisers in the first day and night.

While eagerly awaiting news of the outcome of the struggle for jungle-covered islands under the equatorial sky 600 miles distant from this continent, Australian headquarters were heartened by reports from advanced bases describing the vigor with which day and night air attacks were being pressed home against the bases upon which the Japanese depend for reinforcements.

Rabaul in New Britain, a crossroads for Japanese forces arriving from their mandated islands and fanning out to the southwest Pacific, Gasmata on the south coast of New Britain, and Lae and Salamau on the northeast coast of New Guinea were bearing the full brunt of these aerial onslaughts.

Roaring Air Battle

A roaring air battle took place over Rabaul in one of these attacks Aug. 8 when 20 Zeros rose to ward off big four-motored flying fortresses which dropped low to blast the airbase with 2,000-pound and numerous 100-pound explosives.

Seven of the fighters were shot down, and the raiders believed many of the others crashed when they attempted to land on the bomb-riddled runways.

Latest word on the continuing action in the Solomons, while scant, indicated the initiative remained in the hands of the American fleet and other allied forces which joined the battle Friday.

May Be Major Battle

This information was relayed from Pearl Harbor, Hawaii, late yesterday by Admiral Chester W. Nimitz, U. S. Pacific naval commander. He gave no details as to the scope of the area under attack or the extent of the operations but all signs were that the drive might be developing into a major offensive operation.

Fraud Is Charged in Bids on Cramp Shipyard Repairs

Federal Trade Commission Cites Contractor and Supply Firms

Washington, D. C., Aug. 10.—(AP)—The Federal Trade Commission has announced that it had issued nine complaints charging collusion and fraudulent bidding on navy department contracts for materials used in rehabilitating the Cramp shipyard at Philadelphia.

The complaints are against sellers of electrical supplies, mill work, lumber, other building materials, and machinery. Most of the firms have offices in Philadelphia. Twenty days are allowed for response to allegations.

If the commission finds the charges substantiated, it may issue a "cease and desist" order against continuance of the practices. Violation of the order would take the case into federal court, with the possibility of a fine up to $5,000.

Contractor Is Central Figure

Central figure in the allegations is Charles F. Rohleder of Philadelphia, who is named in each complaint. The Cramp Shipbuilding company contracted with Rohleder to do the construction work on a cost plus fixed fee basis, with the stipulation that materials and services would be purchased through competitive bids.

A federal grand jury in Philadelphia has been investigating the yard for several days on allegations of collusive bidding made in a hearing before a senate committee.

Others Named Respondents:

Westinghouse Electric Supply company, with headquarters in New York and a branch office in Philadelphia, and its agent, R. R. Dewees; alleged to have submitted sham, false, fictitious and fraudulent bids to prospective purchasers.

Graer-Bodey company, Norristown, Pa., and its president, S. W. Roberts; alleged to have prepared fictitious bids on the stationery of competing lumber firms.

Two "Fake" Bids Listed

J. P. Rainey, Philadelphia, trading as J. P. Rainey and company; alleged to have submitted two fictitious bids higher than one of $29,280.12 for electrical wire and cable prepared as agent of Rohleder.

James A. Clancy, M. A. Webster, and Joseph Duffy, trading as J. R. Duffy Manufacturing company; alleged to have carried out a false appearance of competition in bids on metal partitions and doors.

Walter H. Cave, agent of the Philadelphia branch of the American Steel and Wire company of New Jersey and Cyclone Fence company; alleged to have obtained false and noncompetitive bids for wire and other steel products from A. F. Crawford, who acted for himself and as an agent of Paul W. Crawford.

P. J. McBride and George B. McClennen, Philadelphia, trading as Delta Equipment company; alleged to have obtained stationery of competitors for use in preparing false bids for machinery.

Letterheads Involved

Russell Keely and F. Oliver Keely, Manayunk, Pa., trading as S. S. Keely & Sons; alleged to have delivered to S. W. Roberts letterheads for use in preparing false bids for lumber, with the result that Roberts' company received contracts as low bidder.

Frank L. O'Brien and Clarence J. O'Brien, trading as the O'Brien Machinery company; William J. Cattie, trading as Cattie Tool company, and W. B. Rapp, all of Philadelphia; alleged to have cooperated in the preparation and submission of fraudulent bids on machinery.

R. R. Dewees, agent for Westinghouse; alleged to have acted with the knowledge of Rohleder in obtaining stationery of Walker Brothers and the Adelpia Electric company from Anthony M. Callanan and Norman T. Leithold, officials of those companies.

Hears Soldier Broadcast

Mrs. D. D. Considine had a surprising thrill on Wednesday morning, August 5, when she heard the voice of Ted Lukosiak of the Army Transportation Office, Melbourne, Australia, talking to his wife and parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. Lukosiak of the Blackstone hotel in Chicago. As yet, Ted hadn't seen a soldier that he knew back home but he liked it very much in Australia. He is a brother-in-law of Douglas Considine of Hollywood and on several different occasions has visited at the Considine home here. Mrs. Considine heard the broadcast over WGN.

Girls' Society Meets

Mrs. Zelma Hicks, leader of the Girls' Society of Christian Service, was hostess to 11 girls on Wednesday evening. Devotionals were led by Miss Marie Gale. Miss Evelyn Behrendt, one of the three girls who spent last week at Camp Aurora at Lake Geneva gave a very interesting report on their trip. At the close of the business meeting refreshments were served by the hostess. Miss Marie Gale will be the next hostess.

W. S. C. S. Meets

The W. S. C. S. of the Harmon Methodist church convened on Thursday afternoon on the spacious porch at the home of Mrs. Will Edson. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. William Deitz, with the secretary and treasurer's reports, respectively. The ways and means committee for July with Mrs. Zelma Hicks, chairman, passed out notices at this time requesting donations of canned or baked goods, money, eggs or fancy work. All donations to be taken to the home of Mrs. Joe Smallwood by August 14. A report was given by Miss Marie Gale, who in company with Evelyn Behrendt and Lorraine Lehman attended the girls' camp at Lake Geneva. The girls reported a most enjoyable trip and religious study, hiking, horseback riding, tennis and other games. They heard many fine addresses by missionaries, ministers and lay leaders.

Of special significance to them was the candlelight time along the lake. The girls expressed real gratitude and appreciation for help given in different ways by the WSCS members and their making it possible for girls to go to this camp. Devotions were given by Mrs. Grace Parker. Assisting with the discussions on the many races within our borders and our associations in other lands were: Mrs. George Ross, Mrs. Robert Thrasher, Mrs. I. H. Perkins, Mrs. Frederic Ball and Mrs. Gobel Wadsworth. Subject-text read: "God hath made of one blood all nations of men for to dwell on all the face of the Earth."—Acts 17:24-26.

Mrs. Gobel Wadsworth gave the Bible lesson followed by the Lord's prayer closed the study period. Dainty refreshments served by the hostess brought to a close a most enjoyable afternoon.

Washington, Aug. 10.—(AP)—Illinois has adhered to the national wartime petroleum production quota, says Ralph K. Davies, deputy petroleum coordinator, but some states have "consistent and substantially" exceeded the quotas set by Coordinator Ickes.

Davies last week issued a detailed table which showed the monthly production assignment for states and the actual oil production. Texas had produced more oil above its quota than any other state, according to the table.

"Not only is this practice (exceeding quota) unfair to states that are complying with the certifications," Davies said, "but results in inefficient operation and loss of oil recovery when well fields are permitted to produce without restrictions."

The recommended and actual daily barrel production for Illinois was: January—recommended 394,800; actual 382,100; February 350,500 and 357,000; March 371,200 and 330,800; April 354,400 and 310,400; May 325,200 and 300,100; June 320,800 and 285,400.

Peggy Marshall Is Hostess on Fourth Birthday

Four lighted candles topped the birthday cake at an afternoon party given on Saturday by Mrs. John Hofmann for her little granddaughter, Peggy Marshall, daughter of the Charles Marshalls, who was celebrating her fourth birthday anniversary.

Peggy's color books, posing for pictures, and games entertained during play time. Afterward, a birthday lunch was served indoors. Balloons and paper hats were favors for the party-goers, and there were gift packages for the little hostess to unwrap.

Those wishing Peggy a happy birthday were Carol Sue Schreiner, Frances Clausen, Janet Newcomer, Joan Bennett, Nancy Whitcomb, Vera Cook, Buddy Gerlach, Johnny Richler and Ronnie Took.

Because vacations took them out of town, Marilyn Foster, Jo Ann Foster, Buddy Melvin and Gary Reeder were unable to attend the party.

BURKES ARE COMPLIMENTED

The Rev. Father B. Norman Burke, newly-appointed rector of Emmanuel Episcopal church of Rockford, and Mrs. Burke, were honored at a dinner given Thursday evening at the Nelson hotel in Rockford for the vestrymen of Emmanuel church and their wives. Roy H. Brown, senior warden, and Charles D. Capron, junior warden, acted as hosts.

The Rev. Mr. Burke, who has been rector of St. Luke's Episcopal church here, will assume his new duties in Rockford, about Sept. 1.

AUTOGRAPHED BOOKS ARE ON SALE HERE

Half a dozen copies of the book, "Thursday at Ten," written by Margaret Harmon Bro of Mt. Carroll, have been left on sale at Mrs. Charles Walgreen's estate, "Hazelwood." The volumes, which have been autographed by Mrs. Charles Clark, president of the Conference of Club Presidents and Program Chairmen, concern matters of general interest to clubwomen, and include the author's "Hazelwood" interview with Carrie Jacobs Bond.

Dixon Equestrians Take to Mounts for Miniature Trail Ride Up Rock River, Sunday

A hayrack that was drawn by Edward Lambert's span of white mules, (familiarily known among Dixon equestrians as Tom and Jerry); two buggies, with Mike Coffey's Kentucky Choice Princess and the Carl Hasselbergs' chestnut saddle horse, Mei Mei Martin, between the shafts, in addition to a whole cavalcade of saddled mounts ranging from Arabs to western ponies—that was the eye-catching procession that stopped traffic for two blocks and caused passersby to stare in wonderment, as members of the Rock River Trail Ride and Horseman's association set out yesterday morning on another of the trail rides that have made the summer of 1942 the most successful season in the association's colorful history. More than 40 riders—mounted and otherwise—made the trip up-river to the Gardner cottage across the Rock river from Lowell park, where a hamburger fry satisfied hearty appetites.

At intervals along the trail, routed along the old gravel road that curves with the river toward Grand Detour, choruses of the currently popular "Jingle, Jangle, Jingle", "Deep in the Heart of Texas", and other favorite tunes echoed across the river as the procession made its way toward the picnic site. Cowboy hats and bright shirts were favored by the hayrack riders, and there was a decided rodeo atmosphere about the whole affair, particularly when the riders reached their destination and left their mounts in a nearby meadow, surrounded by Harry Warner's herd of white-faced cattle.

Before starting on the return trip to Dixon, canoeing and boat rides added to the day's sum total of fun. Miss Bertha Heeger assisted Mike Coffey and his committee with preparations for the dinner.

Bonnie Hoon was Mike's passenger en route to the picnic, and his niece, Jane Gardner, was Kentucky Choice Princess' second passenger on the way home. Sarah Hasselberg relieved Darwin May at the reins that guided Tom and Jerry back to Dixon. Darwin, in the meantime, was riding Mrs. Edward Lambert's mount.

Eugene Bentley's recently-purchased mount, "Double Choice," lost a shoe on the way to the picnic, but fortunately, a lost shoe isn't as serious as a flat tire, and the two continued on the trail, although exercising care to avoid as much gravel and pavement as possible. Sarah Hasselberg recorded most of the day's happenings on her movie camera, and Captain Ross, who was attending from Camp Grant with Mrs. Ross, was also taking pictures.

When the riders returned to Sorrel Top stables last evening, they were admiring the palomino colt, born yesterday morning to J. W. Pine's five-gaited chestnut mare, "Dimples." The "baby" was informally christened "Cream O' Wheat" this morning, after a former Sorrel Top mount, "Creamo," that met a tragic death when fire swept the stables a number of years ago.

Mr. Bentley and Mrs. Graham Oakford are to arrange Thursday evening's weekly supper ride.

Out of town guests on the trail yesterday, in addition to Captain and Mrs. Ross, were Miss Joan Killian of Sterling, who was riding her show horse, Forrest Miss; her truck driver, and Mr. Bentley and Mr. Hoster, also of Sterling.

Among those from Dixon in the party were Jane Gardner, Bonnie Hoon, Mike Coffey, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hasselberg and daughter, Sarah, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fingley, Mrs. James Ketchin and daughter, Janet, Mr. and Mrs. George Cason, Mary Luger, Quincy Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Crombie and children, James and Ruth, Eileen Schultheis, Ruth Foster, Tommy Love, Mr. Newer, Charles Otto, Charles Dickey, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lambert, T. J. Burke, Miss Bertha Heeger, and Darwin May.

ATTEND PARTY AT ROCKFORD HOTEL

Mr. and Mrs. J. George Graham and son James, and Miss Ruth Oester were in Rockford yesterday attending a celebration of the silver wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Forsberg, who were entertaining at dinner in the Levin room of the Hotel Faust. Fifty-five guests were present from Dixon, Chicago, Forest Park, Freeport, Moline, and Rockford.

Multi-colored gladioli decorated the room. A three-tiered wedding cake was the centerpiece on the U-shaped table. Music and dancing and presentation of gifts to the Forsbergs followed the dinner. Mr. Graham, son of Mrs. Forsberg, presided as toastmaster.

Knack Employees Hold Picnic at Boos Cottage

An ideal day for picnicking was designated by the weather man for yesterday, and employees of the Walter C. Knack company turned out 150 strong for their annual outing. The event, which attracted guests from Dixon, Freeport, Princeton, Rockford, Rock Island and Savanna, took place at the Boos cottage, overlooking the Rock river near Nelson.

Nearly 90 pounds of baked ham, and equally substantial picnic fare was served to the throng at noon. Roasting ears, candy, ice cream, crackerjack, popcorn and pop were Mr. Knack's contribution to the menu. He also provided toy dogs as favors for the children.

John Gardner received a guest favor. Those fortunate in bingo included Mrs. Lawrence Grove, Marie Potts, Helen Shoaf, Mrs. Knack, Mrs. Merle Morgan, Mrs. Carl Brenner, Doris Shoaf, Shirley Shoaf, Mrs. Russell Cooper, Mary Charlene Kock and Rexine Laidig. Horse shoe pitching, baseball and cards provided an additional choice of pastime.

Miss Helen Shoaf and Mrs. Edward Henry were in charge of planning the picnic menu. Other arrangements, including games and transportation, were made by a committee composed of John Bovey, Bert Jacobson and Paul Wall.

Barbara Stremmel, C. R. Scammahorn, Are Wed in Kahoka

Probable induction of the bridegroom into the armed forces in the near future caused Miss Barbara L. Stremmel, daughter of the Paul M. Stremmels of 606 North Brinton avenue, and Cecil R. Scammahorn of Sterling, son of the William Scammahorns of Liberty, Ind., to advance the date for their wedding from Sept. 5 to last Saturday. Instead of the church wedding they had planned for early next month, Barbara and Cecil exchanged their nuptial vows in a noon ceremony at Kahoka, Mo., before the Rev. M. Monroe, pastor of the Methodist church.

The bride wore a victory blue crepe suit, with matching accessories. Her shoulder corsage contained white gladioli and blue delphinium, and her only jewelry was a gold bracelet, her bridegroom's gift.

The couple was accompanied to Kahoka by the bride's parents and her grandmother, Mrs. Estelle Biggs of Macomb, Ill.

Mrs. Scammahorn formerly attended the Mendota and Dixon high schools, and has been employed in the traffic department of the Dixon Home Telephone company. The bridegroom, a graduate of Harrison high school in Liberty, Ind., has been employed at the Fort Dearborn Manufacturing company at Sterling for the past year.

For the present, the couple will reside in Dixon. Later, they plan to move to Sterling.

More than 125,000,000 American farms have lost their best topsoil through erosion, according to estimates.

Meet Your Carrier Boy . . . Who He Is, and What He Does

Get acquainted with your carrier boy . . . one of 75 Dixon Evening Telegraph carriers who deliver this newspaper to 7,000 homes, earn over $12,000 annually, and contribute largely to the support of their families.

He's as human as one of Mark Twain's characters and a living standard of the qualities and principles that go into good citizenship.

Selected from a constant waiting list . . . the result of common knowledge that carrying papers is beneficial to health, remunerative and good business education . . . he is a young merchant conducting his own business, financing himself, furnishing his own transportation, delivering his papers and making his own collections. He is learning self-reliance, punctuality, salesmanship, courtesy and handling of finances.

Most of the 75 Evening Telegraph carriers are students in grade or high school. They are all boys whose excellent characters admitted them to the ranks from which have come some of Dixon's most successful men, and whose enterprise and development under capable supervision will enable them to follow in the footsteps of those leaders who have gone before them.

Who your carrier boy is and what your carrier boy does are subjects of many interesting phases. A word picture of them will be presented in following issues of this newspaper. Be sure to see each advertisement.

In the meantime, MEET YOUR CARRIER BOY. You'll like him!

This is No. 1 of a series of advertisements designed to give Dixon Evening Telegraph readers a closer acquaintance with the boys who deliver this paper to homes daily and a better understanding of their ambitions, problems and accomplishments.

You Can Fight Even If You Are a Woman.

—WE THE WOMEN— By RUTH MILLETT

You are of military age and you want to do your part in the war effort—but you're a woman and you can't fly a bomber or drive a tank. Since the war broke out you have been heard to remark, "I wish I were a man."

But you don't have to be a man to go wherever the fighting is, if you're in dead earnest about wanting to get into the thick of things.

You can take nurse's training and sign up for duty with a branch of the armed forces.

Nurses are needed desperately and the girl who goes into nurse's training now is bound to be of great value to her country in the next few years—whether she serves the civilian population of the armed forces.

TRAINING WILL MAKE YOU INDEPENDENT

And while you are doing something to help your country in this war you are also learning a profession that will make you independent in the years to come.

It is one of the handiest professions for women, for it offers a chance to do part time work to the girl who is married and wants to contribute something to the family checking account. And, with little effort, a nurse can keep her standing in her profession so that she can take a job whenever she likes.

Of course, your parents may try to talk you out of serving with the armed forces if you do get nurse's training—for parents naturally hate to see their daughters take risks and undergo hardships.

But their sons have to fight this war, and as long as men do the fighting it is up to women to see that they are cared for when they are sick or wounded.

—Healo—a wonderful foot ease for those standing on their feet all day.

A Thought for Today

For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.—Matthew 6:21.

When the heart dares to speak, it needs no preparation.—Lessing.

About That Second Front

All the signs point to some dramatic development in this war. What it will be, or where, or upon whose initiative, only a very few persons know—and perhaps they are not quite certain.

It could be the collapse of the sturdy Russian defense. Undoubtedly Hitler is pouring every possible ounce of his strength into an effort to break the Red army now. He may succeed. But in all probability he will not, although he is doing tremendous damage.

More probably, the sensation will be the opening of a second front by either the Anglo-American alliance or the Japanese. Nobody should be too greatly surprised if the two came almost simultaneously—the United Nations trying to distract Hitler from his Russian adventure, while Japan, in Siberia, attempts to distract the Reds from Hitler.

Over whatever the Japanese may do our control is limited. Moreover, President Roosevelt has promised that we shall wage a war of offense. Therefore it is up to us to decide, principally, where we are going to hit Hitler, and how.

Laymen in a democracy are entitled to their opinions. But lay opinions in the matter of second front strategy are not worth the breath it takes to expound them. Only the experts should determine, on the basis of secret information properly withheld from the public, when we are ready to strike, and where, and how.

Conceding that probably we shall open a second front soon, there is one point on which the public should keep very clear.

If our second front is in the air—if it is a day-by-day series of devastating raids upon the Reich's industrial centers and transportation arteries—then in launching it we shall not have burned all our bridges behind us.

We can wage such warfare assured that even if it should prove less conclusive than we hope, we shall have done more damage to Germany than to ourselves.

A second land front can not be opened in Europe, however pressing Russia's emergency, unless we are prepared to gamble our national existence upon that one throw of the dice.

The losses we must suffer, landing an army in Europe and attempting to supply it, will be so unbearable that they could not be repeated.

If such an attempt is made and it fails, we shall have lost the war for keeps, right there.

The decision is too vital to be made on the basis of emotion. If Franklin Roosevelt were so weak that he could be egged into rashness by pre-printed postcards, Red Front sponsored, they should be withheld.

Fortunately, he is not.

Red Front Drive

The Soviet is intensely eager to have the British and Americans open up a second front.

Every news story that comes from Moscow is filled with propaganda for such a development. The old cock-sure spirit is gone. Day after day we are told that the Russians are doing the best they can, but they are outnumbered, outgunned, and facing disaster.

Now and then we are reminded that the morale of soldiering in the ranks is suffering as they ask each other sadly: "Where are our allies? Where is that second front?"

Nobody can blame the Soviet for this propaganda drive to force our hand. The Russians have put up a marvelous defense against Hitler's armies. With their blood they have given to England and the United States a new lease on life.

They are entitled to expect that we will do everything we can to relieve them in their distress, for our sakes as much as for theirs.

That, however, is no excuse for American Communists and fellow travelers who are playing the game of a foreign nation here today, even as they played the game of a foreign nation while Russia was Hitler's ally and, therefore, our undeclared enemy.

Timed so accurately that the theory of coincidence is strained, a group of known Red Fronters held a rally in New York, heralded with large advertisements in the daily press, "to support the President for the opening of a Second Front now."

The rally was sponsored by the Greater New York Industrial Union Council C. I. O., with Joseph Curran as president and Saul Mills secretary. The featured speakers included some non-Communists plus Curran and the leader of the pro-Communist wing of the American Labor party, Congressman Vito Marcantonio.

These were the same leaders who bitterly opposed every move to prepare American defenses against Hitler up to the day der Fuehrer invaded Russia, and who thereupon became most vociferous advocates of war.

At the same time men and women, some recognizable as old-line Communist party workers, began distributing in the subways and streets postcards, addressed to the President, pledging support of "your second front agreement" and adding: "It is needed now without further delay. I see danger to victory unless the western front is opened immediately."

Here is an obvious attempt by a thoroughly discredited element to stampede President Roosevelt into action, timed perfectly to coincide with the drive of a foreign government to that same end.

Nobody is more aggressive or impatient of delay, in such matters, than Franklin Roosevelt and Winston Churchill. Their records are replete with proof that the second front we all want will be opened the first moment it has any slightest chance of success.

Messrs. Roosevelt and Churchill need no prodding. They need no printed postcard assurances that their countries are with them. All they need is the ships, the planes, the other armament and munitions.

Let our Red Front concentrate on helping to provide weapons. Let them leave war strategy to democracy-minded leadership.

NEWS BEHIND THE NEWS

By PAUL MALLON

(Distributed by King Features Syndicate, Inc., reproduction in whole or part strictly prohibited.)

Washington, Aug. 9.—Before Mr. Roosevelt sat down to write his veto of the farm bloc's rubber bill, he was advised by his congressional lieutenants that he must make some effort to satisfy farm anger or his veto would be overriden.

This, no doubt, is at least one reason why the president named an impartial and aggressive man like Bernard Baruch to head an inquiry into his own WPB's rubber policy.

The congressional leaders thought that without some such concession by the White House, they could not quell the congressional rubber stampede. Their quelling efforts were further aided by the fact that congress is in virtual recess until September, and many administration representatives were ready to change their votes for the sake of avoiding a dis-unifying action if provided with a reasonable out.

One who did not change was Senator Gillette, who has been telling friends for some days that he has uncovered leads in his subcommittee rubber investigation which will make a bigger explosion than Teapot Dome—if proven true.

Readers have wired or written suggesting further explanation of the points set forth in my letter of August 4th to Mr. Davenport of Life in response to his question: "If you were president, what would you do immediately to improve the war effort and make more certain of victory?"

The ideas were too tersely presented, they complained. First point was that I would switch the armed services and all Washington from their defensive mental attitude and bring up to the top cool men of scientific action.

One idea I had in mind is that our best soldier, General MacArthur, is practically wasting himself in Australia preparing for an attack which is not expected. There may be others just as good as MacArthur in this Army, but no one has yet shown his aggressive spirit, and none can equal him in actual fighting experience. I believe he should have the ships and bombers to fight his way back up to the Philippines or be transferred where his talent to fight can be used, say, to the coming second front.

MacArthur may have dramatic mannerisms, as they say, but this criticized phase of him shows he is the best type to lead combat. He may be exceptionally broad breasted, but he fights. Everyone knows our armed services tend to be clubbish in their cloisters. Men are too often measured by seniority and congeniality rather than fighting spirit. It is no criticism of many fine Army and Navy men, now playing decisive roles, to say their talents are suited to peacetime administration.

Only the President of the United States can cut down through this historic tradition and pluck out the cool imaginative daring men we need. Perhaps a complete change of tone could be effected with comparatively few job switches, if emphasis was sternly placed on talent and brains from the top. Three years of bitter mistakes came before Lincoln found the right type of men. In the last war, which was confined to trench battling of a single front, a man with superior ability in administrative detail and diplomacy was needed.

This time we are facing global war, with no trenches anywhere and new types of fluid fronts are being successfully pressed against us everywhere. This is primarily a war of strategy, not of administration. The situation requires genius, nothing less. This looks too much like the Hollywood war from our standpoint so far.

Other points in the Davenport letter will be taken up in succeeding columns.

Congressmen are particularly irked at WPB by evidence of the black market in steel. The Truman committee received reports privately about the situation months ago and notified WPB. It seems WPB penalized some firms for violating priorities, but the congressmen now say WPB action was not sufficiently vigorous to stop the stealthy low violations.

Roosevelt's generous gesture in transferring a subchaser to Queen Wilhelmina when this particular type is most needed in the Atlantic and Caribbean, where we wage a losing fight against nazi subs, has caused uninformed people to ask questions, especially as the Netherlands has no merchant marine now needing subchaser protection.

No official answer could be given to these inquiries at the time of the transfer, but an ample explanation can be made. The subchaser unquestionably is to be used in our service, or the service of the British.

Deaths

O. L. CAMPBELL

Knoxville, Ill., Aug. 10.—(AP)—O. L. Campbell, 90, veteran retired newspaper publisher and editor, and for nearly 60 years secretary of the Knox County Old Settlers' Association, died at his home here Saturday.

Campbell began his newspaper career as a reporter for the Quincy Herald was editor of the Canton Register, publisher of the Knox County Republican at Knoxville for 40 years, and was on the news staff of the former Galesburg Evening Mail. He also was postmaster here for 16 years. Three children survive.

WARREN N. LUTTRELL

Franklin, Ill., Aug. 10.—(AP)—Warren N. Luttrell, publisher of the weekly Franklin Times for over 35 years, was found dead in bed today. He was about 65 years old and was believed to have died of a heart attack. Luttrell had been active in Republican party affairs in Morgan county for many years.

EDGAR V. MOORMAN

Quincy, Ill., Aug. 10.—(AP)—Funeral services will be held here tomorrow for Edgar V. Moorman, 70, vice presidential candidate on the Prohibition ticket in the last election, who died suddenly yesterday of a heart ailment.

Moorman, who for many years was prominent in Methodist church activities, was president of the Moorman Manufacturing Company, one of the largest stock mineral firms in the country.

Roger Babson and Moorman headed the Prohibition party ticket in the last presidential election.

A native of Hardin county, Ky., Moorman went to Missouri as a young man and with a brother, H. C. Moorman, operated a stock remedy business. Later he moved to Quincy and established the Moorman Stock Medicine Company.

Survivors include his widow, three daughters, a brother, C. A. Moorman, and twin sisters, Vinnie and Virginia Moorman, all of Quincy.

MRS. ANNA K. KILLMER

Mrs. Anna K. Killmer, age 83, passed away Sunday afternoon at 2:40 o'clock at her home 422 Jackson avenue. Mrs. Killmer had been in failing health for the last several years and had been bedfast for a week.

Funeral services will be held on Wednesday at 1:30 o'clock from the home and at 2 p. m. from the Emmanuel Lutheran church. The Rev. C. L. Wagner will have charge of the services. Burial will be in Prairie Repose cemetery at Amboy.

Six children survive to mourn the death of their mother. They are: the Rev. A. H. Killmer of Saginaw, Michigan; Fred Killmer of Amboy, Mrs. Emil (Lucy) Burzloff of Clinton, Ia., Miss Stella Killmer at home, Henry Killmer of Broadhead, Wis., and Mrs. Earl (Bertha) Williams of Sterling. Five grandchildren and two great-grandchildren and a number of nephews and nieces as well as a wide circle of friends also are saddened by the death of Mrs. Killmer. The casket will be taken home this afternoon.

PAINTING HINTS

When you have fresh paint on the floor and it is necessary to traverse the room, it may be done easily by placing a plank or board on a couple of two or three inch high blocks, thus keeping the plank up off the painted surface, and walking along this plank to get over the new paint.

Another point to be observed in painting walls is to start somewhat back from the door, at a wall break or corner, and work toward the door. In this way you do not paint yourself into your room.

It is better not to leave newly painted furniture near an open window, lest dust or dirt specks blow in and settle on the finish, thus marring the pleasing and smooth surface.

Always remove wax from any waxed surface you intend to paint—floors, linoleum or wood. Otherwise the paint will not adhere properly to the surface. Wax may be easily removed with turpentine.

—Look at the expiration date on your Dixon Telegraph. If it is about to expire, send check or P. O. order. Tire situation makes it difficult to send out collectors.

Sound Pictures on Safety at North Side Park Planned

The supervised playgrounds of the Dixon park district under the direction of Miss Olive Palmer announces an evening's entertainment of sound moving-pictures on safety to be shown at North Side park Wednesday evening, August 12th, between 8:00 and 9:00 p. m. by Sergeant Wetswick of the highway state police department. All playground children and friends and relatives are cordially invited to be present at the showing of these films. The playground children from Truman, Kiwanis, and Dement will be taken to North Side park by the truck which will call for them at their playgrounds between 7:30 and 8:00. A playground supervisor will ride with the children on the truck. The moving pictures will be finished promptly at 9:00 in order that everyone may be at home before 10:00 to carry out the black-out that is scheduled for Wednesday evening. The truck will take the children from Truman, Kiwanis, and Dement home after the movies.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"Spirit" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, Aug. 9.

The Golden Text was, "Where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty" (II Cor. 3:17).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "But as it is written, Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him. But God hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God" (I Cor. 2:9, 10).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Symbols and elements of discord and decay are not products of the infinite, perfect and eternal All. From Love and from the light and harmony which are the abode of Spirit, only reflections of good can come. All things beautiful and harmless are ideas of Mind" (p. 280).

LUCKY PENNY

BY GLORIA KAYE

COPYRIGHT, 1942, NEA SERVICE, INC.

THE STORY: Wealthy Penny Kirk has returned from Paris to "rediscover" herself in Kirktown, location of the great steel mills she has inherited. The morning after her arrival she is out, incoherent, to the door. Hot and tired, she drops in at a restaurant, is mistaken for a job applicant, and hired as a waitress. Five well-dressed men enter the restaurant, and in a moment a fight starts.

PENNY MEETS THE EDITOR

CHAPTER III

WITHOUT warning, a steel worker who had just come in walked over to the table where the well-dressed quintet was seated and lifted one of the men from his seat. He struck furiously, before the unwary group could come to its senses. Methodically, like a machine, he hammered first at one and then at another of the men.

Then they were all on their feet. Slugging with animal ferocity, they ignored tables and chairs in the melee that raged from one end of the restaurant to the other. Penny stepped aside just in time as her table was overturned, the spaghetti spilling onto the floor in a tangled mess. Out of the corner of her eye she saw Pietro lurch from his kitchen screaming epithets in a tongue she couldn't understand and waving a meat cleaver high over his head. The men paid no attention to him. In a whirlwind of fists—the black-shirted steel worker seemed to be spinning like a top, no match for the men he had attacked. Often his flailing punches reached their mark, but now he was weakening.

Then, once more from nowhere, came that familiar tweed-suited figure, the broad shoulders Penny recognized. She wondered what Jim Vickers would do.

For a long moment, he hesitated. Then, taking in the situation with a sharp, thoughtful glance, he plunged into the fight with a thorough fierceness that thrilled Penny in a strange way she had no time to analyze.

Jim Vickers was a powerhouse in action. He grappled with two of the sleek-haired men and tossed them halfway across the room as if they were pebbles. Pietro, still shouting imprecations that no one could understand, returned to the fray with a more practical weapon, a skillet which he bounced with marked success off the head of another member of the embattled quintet.

As quickly as the fight had begun it ended. Jim restrained the irate Pietro and the scowling steel worker by grasping their arms firmly in his strong hands. The five who had been beaten brushed dirt from their trousers and glared in impotent fury at their attackers, then picked up their crushed hats, no longer white. "You haven't heard the end of this, Vickers," one of the men said evenly, grimly. "We'll get you yet!" Bitter anger was written in their bruised faces as they stalked out.

MIDGE and Pietro, suddenly as calm as though this were an everyday occurrence, surveyed the damage.

"That was the best day's entertainment I've had in a year," said Midge. "I'd give a week's salary to see you do it over again."

"Sit down and have a cup of coffee, boys," Pietro invited. "They've had it coming to them for a long time. Here, Penny. Take care of the boys. Don't worry about the tables. We'll fix them."

Both Jim and the steel worker nursed sore knuckles as Penny served them with hands that still shook.

"What's the story, Bill?" Jim asked quietly. Bill took a long drag on his cigaret before he answered.

"You've probably heard it a hundred times, Jim. My brother lost his pay again this week. Castro's men cleaned him good and proper. He didn't have enough money left for bus fare. I'm going to get those guys," Bill threatened, clenching his fist. "If they don't let my kid brother alone, I'll kill them!"

"How did it happen, Bill?" Jim's voice was soothing.

"The same old racket," Bill said, as if weary of repeating it. "Castro's stooges were at the mill gate as usual, on pay day. The kid brother is a good lad. He means well. But—well, like the other fellows, he likes a good time. They roped him into a crooked dice game. He had a few drinks with the boys. When they finished, his pay was gone."

"Sure it was the Castro gang?" asked Jim.

"Sure," said Bill. "It's always the Castro gang! They run this town. You know that, Jim."

"I know. You'd better lie low for a while," Jim cautioned. "They're a tough bunch. Don't worry about that outfit. We'll clean them out of Kirktown."

"Thanks, Jim," said Bill. "I can take care of myself. If they know what's good for them, they'd better stay away from us. My brother has the swiftest wife and kid that ever lived. I'm not going to stand by and see his life messed up."

Penny sensed, somehow, that this was the longest speech Bill had ever made. With set lips and bitter eyes, he looked out.

Jim Vickers pulled a sheet of paper from an inner pocket, and made a few notes. Deftly, Midge poured another steaming cup of coffee. "By the way, Jim," she said, "here's an item for your paper. Meet Penny Kellogg, our new diner-outlet of food fit for a king. Penny, meet Jim Vickers, editor, publisher and janitor of the Kirktown Courier."

PENNY felt an unaccustomed blush flooding her cheeks. She managed a smile and a stammer. "Glad to know you, Penny," Jim said. "I'm sorry our little game spoiled your lunch. We don't always play so rough."

"I thought you did all right," Penny approved, inwardly thankful that he did not recognize her. "It certainly was swell of you to come to Bill's rescue. He was getting the worst of it, you know."

"Lots of good fellows like Bill are getting the worst of it," Jim said soberly. "The showdown is coming soon." Jim went on to explain that on pay day Castro's shells worked the mill gates.

"They're a tricky bunch. The men have money, burning a hole in their pockets. Castro provides the temptation and the suckers lose their pay."

"I can't understand that," said Penny. "Don't the men know they're being tricked?"

"It's hard to explain, Penny," Jim said. "But the hunger for excitement and fun is just as gnawing, sometimes, as the hunger for food. Castro runs every place in town. The men wander into one of his spots just to have something different to do. Before they realize it they've had too much to drink. If they don't gamble their pay away on Castro's crooked games, they're rolled for their money."

He looked up at Penny, studied the serious expression on her face, and laughed suddenly.

"Gosh, Penny. It isn't as bad as all that," he said. "Let's see you smile again. I like your dimples." Involuntarily, Penny complied.

"You're a stranger here and it's my civic duty to show you the sights," Jim volunteered. "How about a guided tour of Kirktown?" Penny hesitated. Jim's invitation was tempting, but dangerous to the plan she had been outlining in her mind. Penny Kellogg in a waitress' uniform might mean nothing to Jim. Would he recognize her as the Penny Kirk he had known in Paris if he spent an afternoon with her?

"Come on," he urged. "I'm harmless."

"Well—" Penny wanted to go, admitting to herself that she had been a little lonely. Maybe it was worth a chance.

WARD SMITH, G.B. ZIV ARE CITY TENNIS FINALISTS

Ziv Upsets Joslyn in Semi-Finals

Smith Scores Victories Over Ted Mason and Warren Lapham

By ORTMAN
Defending champion Ward Smith and B. G. Ziv will meet in the men's singles finals of the Dixon Evening Telegraph's seventh annual city tennis tournament next Sunday morning.

Fourth-seeded Ziv advanced to the finals by scoring a stunning upset over second-seeded R. A. Joslyn in a semi-final match yesterday afternoon. Both men played hard, fighting tennis with Ziv driving well to the corners to defeat his opponent in straight sets, 6-1, 6-2.

In the morning quarter-final round Ziv scored a 6-3, 6-3 victory over Philip Reilly, who is a high school student, played well but was unable to reach many of Ziv's drives to the base lines.

Smith easily defeated Warren Lapham, 6-3 and 6-4 in the quarter finals but ran into trouble in the first set of his semi-final tilt with Ted Mason. Mason took advantage of Smith's erratic play to build up a 5-1 lead but at this point top-seeded Smith settled down, winning six straight games to take the set 6-5. He continued bearing down, winning the second set, and the match, 6-0.

Mason, who had been seeded No. 3, had advanced to the semi-finals by taking William Goff in straight sets, 6-1, 6-2. This bout was well-contested and much closer than the score indicates.

Joslyn won over Charles Schuler, 5-2 and 6-4 in a hard fought quarter final match. Schuler kept Joslyn on his toes throughout the contest with hard chop shots but Joslyn's superior all-around play gave him the game.

Schuler was originally scheduled to play Howard Quick in the preliminaries but won a free trip to the quarter finals when Quick defaulted.

Although all of them were eliminated, Reilly, Goff and Mason showed real promise in the games yesterday and should make good showings in high school competition this year.

Mason and Reilly had both played in the junior tournament at Decatur late last week but were eliminated. Reilly was taken out in the second round but Mason advanced to the third round where he was defeated by top-seeded Travers.

Arrangements have not yet been completed for the men's doubles competition. As things stand now, only three teams are entered in the division. Smith and Joslyn will probably play together and will be seeded No. 1. Reilly and Goff have announced they would form a team and Mason and Ziv are paired together. If Schuler and Lapham compete as a team it would fill out the class.

As Ziv would be unable to play on Saturday, he and Mason will have to engage their opponents some time during the week. However, it is certain that the finals for this division will be played Sunday afternoon.

The quarter-final round for the women's singles class will run off next Saturday with the finals being played on Sunday.

The trophies for the Telegraph tournament will be on display in the office windows this week.

Cubs Win Eighteen Inning Game From Cincinnati, 10-8

FORMER SURGEON IS SKEET CHAMP

Dr. Leroy Childs Shoots 250 Straight Targets to Win Title

Syracuse, N. Y., Aug. 10.—(AP)—The steady nerves he acquired while performing delicate surgery helped a 59-year-old retired doctor become monarch of the skeet world in five years.

Dr. Leroy W. Childs, former Atlanta, Ga., surgeon, shot 250 straight targets—the final 50 yesterday—to win the coveted 12-gauge title in the 8th national championships.

The slightly-built southerner, who now lives at Lake Kerr, Fla., took up skeet in 1937 after doctors had advised him to abandon more strenuous sports.

He attributes the winning of his first national title over a field of 253 marksmen, some youngsters half his age, to "the concentration habits I learned in the operating room."

Wife Wins Women's Crown

In seven previous national tournaments, only three other gunners have fired a perfect 250x250. Little less remarkable was his wife's feat in shattering 97 of 100 birds in winning the women's 20-gauge title. She has been shooting skeet only two years.

Private Dick Shaughnessy, 1940 12-gauge king, who finished first in three events only to lose two in shoot-offs, captured high-over-all honors, dropping only seven of 550 targets in five days of shooting.

A squad of U. S. Naval Aviation gunners won the team championship with 123x1250, five birds ahead of the Army quintet.

DeKalb Wins Second Semi Pro Contest

Sycamore, Ill., Aug. 10.—(AP)—

A third team in the state semi-pro baseball tournament was eliminated last night when DeKalb, winning its second game, humbled Warrenville, 13 to 0, in seven innings. Ten teams remained in play for the title, with competition expected to continue throughout the week. Two games were scheduled tonight.

Warrenville, guilty of six misdeeds afield, was held to three hits by DeKalb's pitcher, Goff.

The Chicago Stadium Liquors, also won their second victory last night, downing the Chicago Firemen, 10 to 2. A big eighth inning good for six runs, was the clincher for the Stadium nine.

Bloomington engages St. Joseph of Aurora in tonight's first engagement and Sycamore was booked to oppose the Benda Coals of Berwyn.

Raiders Open Series With Springfield

By The Associated Press

Cedar Rapids led the Three Eye league by a game and a half today and prepared to protect the margin in a stretch drive for the championship with Springfield.

The Raiders blasted Decatur last night, 10 to 6, with the aid of 10 hits and five Decatur errors. The Raiders pushed over five runs in the first inning, picked up a pair in the fifth and added three in the ninth. Decatur's best effort with its 13 hits was a four-run spurt in the opening inning.

Springfield used nine blows in subduing Waterloo, 7 to 2, as Coleman and Kimble paced the attack with homers.

Evansville, a threat for the title if the two front runners weaken, disposed of Madison in two games, 2 to 1 on a seven-hit workout that netted runs in the fourth and fifth innings, and 9 to 0 on the seventh. In the nightcap, the Bees used a dozen hits off Matulis to score a pair of markers in the third and again in the fifth and then exploded for five in the sixth.

Tonight's schedule: Cedar Rapids at Springfield; Madison at Decatur; Waterloo at Evansville.

67 Players in Game

A total of 67 players participated in the first game—three short of the record held by the Pittsburgh Pirates and Boston Braves. By squaring accounts in the nightcap, the Reds preserved third place in the National league by a lone percentage point over the New York Giants, who swept a double-header from the Philadelphia Phils.

Meanwhile the St. Louis Cardinals squeezed past the Pittsburgh Pirates, 4-3 and 2-1, to trim Brooklyn's lead to eight lengths. The Dodgers bumped into a postponement at Boston.

SHORT SECOND GAME TO REDS; SOX TAKE TWO

Cardinals Victorious in Twin Bill With Pirates

Associated Press

Most baseball teams will go to great lengths to win their games, but few of them have had to go as far as the Chicago Cubs, who needed 18 innings yesterday to trip the Cincinnati Reds in the opener of a double-header.

Twelve pitchers, the most ever used in a major league game, paraded to the mound in the struggle, longest in the majors this season and the seventh extra-inning affair for these two clubs in 13 meetings.

Three times the Cubs figured they had it in the bag, but each time the Reds tied it up. Finally Hiram Bithorn, last of six Chicago hurlers, blanked the Reds for six straight innings and the Cubs sandwiched the 18th inning blows of Stan Hack and Dom Dallessandro between a walk and an out-field fly for two runs and a 10-8 decision.

The game itself lasted five hours and was interrupted for another hour by weather in the 13th frame. That left only an hour of daylight for the second game, which the Reds won, 2-1, in four and a half innings, with Bithorn the starting and losing hurler.

SIX OF THESE EIGHT SABOTEURS DIED IN THE ELECTRIC CHAIR

—NEA Telephoto

Death at high noon came to six of these eight Nazi saboteurs who landed in the United States by submarine only two months ago. Spared because they gave evidence against their confederates were Ernest Peter Burger, sentenced to life at hard labor, and George John Dasch, sentenced to 30 years. Electrocuted in the District of Columbia jail were Edward John Kerling, Richard Quirin, Werner Thiel, Herbert Hans Haupt, Hermann Otto Neubauer, and Henry Heinck.

Five Fronts Where Japan May Land Next Blow

Jap action in New Guinea and nearby islands, in western Burma, in Manchukuo and in the Aleutian Islands indicates new Nipponese thrusts may be in the making, aimed at one or more of five points spotted on map. Even the mid-Pacific remains a potential front despite enemy losses at Midway.

Spotlighting Jap-Held Aleutian Isles

Closeup look at the three tiny Aleutian islands seized by Japan from the U. S. shows them to be mere specks on the map with a total area only half that of Rhode Island. But Bataan was no bigger than these three rocky, fog-swept islands, and with 10,000 Jap troops reported occupying them, Attu, Agattu and Kiska may yet become a battle arena as famous as the Philippine peninsula.

LEGAL PUBLICATION

OFFICIAL PUBLICATION
Pursuant to law in such case made and provided, public notice is hereby given that the following proposed amendment will be submitted to the electors of the State of Illinois for adoption or rejection at the General Election to be held on November 3, 1942.

Article IX
Sec. 1. The General Assembly shall provide such revenue as may be needful by levying a tax, by valuation, so that every person and corporation shall pay a tax in proportion to the value of his, her or its property, such value to be ascertained by some person or persons, to be elected or appointed in such manner as the General Assembly shall direct, and not otherwise; but the General Assembly shall have power to tax peddlers, auctioneers, brokers, hawkers, merchants, commission merchants, showmen, jugglers, inkeepers, grocery keepers, liquor dealers, toll bridges, ferries, insurance, telegraph and express interests or business, vendors of patents, and persons or corporations owning or using franchises and privileges, in such manner as it shall from time to time direct by general law, uniform as to the class upon which it operates.

Notwithstanding the foregoing requirement that a tax shall be uniform as to the class upon which it operates, the General Assembly shall have power to exempt from the provisions of any Act imposing an occupational or privilege tax the business of selling food for human consumption, and in providing for such exemption the General Assembly shall have power to define the word "food".

Explanation of Proposed Amendment.

The proposed Section 1 of Article IX of the Constitution differs from the present Section 1 of Article IX only by reason of the addition of the second paragraph, which is entirely new and which provides that the General Assembly shall have the power, in imposing an occupational or privilege tax, to exempt the business of selling food for human consumption, and gives the General Assembly the power to define the word "food".

Reasons Why Proposed Amendment Should be Ratified by the Voters

The Constitution requires that the General Assembly, in levying an occupational tax, shall make the same uniform as to the class upon which it operates. Therefore, the General Assembly has no power to exempt food sold for human consumption, but must impose an occupational tax on all retailers, or none. By giving the General Assembly power to exempt sales of food from the operation of the sales tax, a way is opened to remedy the injustice existing under the present law.

The proposition for the adoption or rejection of the proposed amendment will appear on the official ballot at the left of the names of the candidates following the explanation hereinabove made in substantially the following form:

For the proposed amendment to Section 1 of Article IX of the Constitution.	Yes	No

In order for the proposed amendment to be adopted it must receive a majority of all the votes cast at the general election, not just a majority of all the votes on the proposed amendment. All who neglect to vote on the proposed amendment are really voting against it. Each voter of Illinois is urged to study this question carefully and to vote according to his or her best judgment.

CAPITOL BUILDING
Springfield, Illinois.
OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY OF STATE

I, EDWARD J. HUGHES, Secretary of State of the State of Illinois, do hereby certify that the foregoing is a true copy of the proposed amendment, explanation and reason for ratification, and the form of the official ballot to be used in submitting the same to the electors of this State at the General Election to be held on the Third day of November, A. D. 1942, the originals of which are now on file in this office.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I hereunto set my hand and affix the Great Seal of the State of Illinois. Done at my office in the Capitol Building, in the city of Springfield, this 15th day of July, A. D. 1942, and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and sixty-sixth.

EDWARD J. HUGHES,
(SEAL) Secretary of State.
